'The Soviet Spies'

Igor Gouzenko Gives Reason For Leaving Soviet Embassy

In the first chapter of "The Soviet Spies" you read how Igor Gouzenko, cipher clerk for the Soviet embassy in Ottawa, Canada, made the vital decision to turn over secret papers revealing workings of the Russian espionage system in North America to the Canadian Government and stood in fear of his life. In Chapter Two in this issue of The Y-12 Bulletin you find how the documents were authenticated and steps taken by the Canadian Government to thwart the spy ring. Chapter Two also tells how the Canadian Government refused to turn Gouzenko over to the Soviet Embassy on charges of "theft."

CHAPTER TWO

Gouzenko and the RCAF sergeant were standing on the balcony when they saw Lavrentiev walking away down the lane. The cipher clerk paled. "There he is," he whispered.

"Perhaps you had better take my wife in your apartment as well."

As they were talking Mrs. C. D. Anderson, a motherly looking housewife who lived in Apartment 6, appeared. On hearing the story, she said: "I have plenty of room for all of your family, including yourself, Mr. Gouzenko. I will be very happy to give you shelter as long as you require it."

Sergeant Calls Canadian Police

"You go along with her," said the sergeant. "I'll call the police. Those fellows will not dare break into the house of a Canadian citizen."

That was at 7 o'clock. At 7:30 o'clock, Constables Tom Walsh and J. B. McCulloch, who had been patrolling the district in their prowl car, responded to the call.

In Apartment 6 they found the Gouzenkos. The cipher clerk identified himself, said that he had information of extreme importance to the government, and requested protection. The officers assured him that they would watch the apartment house.

"Keep the light on in the bathroom here. We can see it from the park. If you need us, put out the light."

When they went back to their car they moved it to a spot in the park.

Reds Come Late At Night

Nothing happened until 11:30 o'clock, when four men drove up to 511 Somerset St. They went at once to Gouzenko's apartment. They began by knocking on the door. They knocked so loud and so long that the RCAF sergeant thought that it was the police returning for a further inquiry. He opened his door and looked out.

Realizing his error he was about to close the door when one of the men ran up to him.

"Where is Gouzenko?" he demanded.

The RCAF sergeant gave him a blank look. "You got me buddy," he said, and shut the door tight.

There was a conference in the hall, then the four men put their shoulders to the door of Gouzenko's apartment and broke in.

From Apartment 6, Gouzenko watched the proceedings through

The Paramount Objective is to Assure the Common Defense and Security

... Sec. ATOMIC ENERGY ACT OF 1946

the keyhole. He got up, went to the bathroom, switched out the light.

In the park, the police officers caught the signal. They streaked for the apartment house on the double. In Apartment 4 they found all the lights on and all the closet doors open. Consul Pavlov was in one closet, Colonel Rogov in another. Two assistants from the Soviet Embassy were in the room.

"What are you people doing here?" demanded Walsh.

Pavlov produced his card and said that all present were members of the Embassy staff, who were looking for certain official papers. "The man who owns this apartment has left town, but we have his permission to enter and get what we need."

Walsh pointed to the broken lock, part of which still lay on the floor. "For people who have permission to enter an apartment, you certainly chose a funny way to get in."

Pavlov shrugged. "We lost the key," he replied. "This is Soviet property and we can do as we wish. You will please leave."

The officers shook their heads. "Not until an inspector arrives."

Consul Pavlov held a conference with his group, and decided to call it a night. The police made no effort to detain them, and they went back to the Soviet Embassy.

For the rest of the night the Gouzenkos remained in Apartment 6 under the watchful care of the city police.

Shortly after daybreak on September 7, the Gouzenkos and their documents were moved to the headquarters of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Commissioner S. T. Wood personally notified Prime Minister Mackenzie King of the events of the preceding evening.

DON'T FORGET

The new telephone number for both The Y-12 Bulletin and the Y-12 Recreation Office now is

By combining the two telephones previously serving the two offices the incoming calls for both of them will be considerably speeded up for the convenience of employees wishing to communicate with either office.

Monday, May 31 To Be Observed As Y-12 Holiday

Long week-end trips, picnics, fishing trips and many other forms of diversion are being planned by Y-12 employees in anticipation of the Memorial Day holiday, to be observed by all Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corp. plants in Oak Ridge on Monday, May 31. The holiday is being observed on Monday as Memorial Day, May 30, falls on Sunday.

An official plant bulletin proclaiming the holiday has been issued and states:

"Due to the fact that Memorial Day occurs on a Sunday this year, the following Monday, May 31, 1948, will be observed as a holiday in this plant.

Skeletonized Force to Work

"No employees will be required to work on this date except for those employees whose presence at work is necessary to assure the continuous operation and protection of the plant, such as the skeleton forces which are required to work on Saturdays and Sundays.

"Absences occurring on the days immediately preceding or following this holiday will not be excused except when written evidence is presented to the Division Superintendent indicating that unavoidable circumstances necessitated the absence."

Supervisors have been requested to arrange work schedules accordingly.

Holiday Pay Plan Effective

The Company holiday pay plan for hourly and weekly payroll employees will be effective for the Memorial Day on Monday, May 31. It provides for straight-time pay for holidays not worked for those employees scheduled to work on that holiday and for double-time pay when the holiday is worked.

For those folks who remain in Oak Ridge one of the outstanding entertainment events will be the opening of the new Oak Ridge ball park on Baltimore Road, just off Gamble Valley Road. Although the Y-12 Cardinals are not scheduled to play on the holiday a banner attraction will be offered when the Carbide K-25 nine meets the Roane-Anderson outfit.

Safe Holiday Is Urged

The Y-12 Safety Section urges all employees intending to make automobile trips over the week end to use unusual precautions in driving as the highways will be congested with motorists also taking advantage of the holiday period. In addition to careful driving, all motorists are urged to see that their automobiles are in good condition, particularly tires and brakes.

Many Y-12 folks will be glad to learn that Big Ridge Park will open this season and that the Owens busses will leave from Central Terminal for that resort at 9 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on Saturdays and Sundays, and will leave the park for the return trip at 5 p.m. and 6 p.m.

All concessions at Big Ridge again will be in operation except the horse barns and the cabins and will include canoe rentals, beach, bathhouse and picnic areas.

All Employees Will Receive 'About Carbide' Through Mail

"About Carbide," the handsomely printed and illustrated booklet giving the history of Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corp. and a description of its activities will be mailed to employees of all three Oak Ridge Carbide plants the latter part of this week.

Its 39 fact-filled pages tells about the Company, its people and the work they do. It is dedicated to the thousands of loyal and able men and women whose enthusiasm and earnest cooperation over the years has developed Carbide in plants in West Virginia, New York, Indiana, Kentucky, Texas and Tennessee.

'O' Calls For '5' Prefix Numbers Are Discontinued

From now on the official telephone switchboard operators in Oak Ridge, obtained by dialing "O", will no longer accept calls for Oak Ridge numbers having the prefix "5" when such calls are originated from official telephones. All such calls now will be made in the regular manner by dialing "3" and then dialing the "5" number desired after hearing the new dial tone.

This action has become necessary because of the congestion of the "O" trunk lines with interplant calls, whereas the "3" trunk lines have been found to be generally congested only from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Therefore, most calls placed on the "3" trunk lines should be cleared without delay.

Instrument Group To Hear Dr. Ray

The Oak Ridge Section of the Instrument Society of America will hold its 26th meeting at 7:45 p.m., Wednesday, June 2, at the Grove Recreation Hall. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. for those wishing to attend and Y-12 employees desiring reservations may obtain them by telephoning 6198 or 8-9711.

Dr. W. H. Ray, consulting and coordination chief of the health-physics division of the Oak Ridge National Laboratory will deliver the principal address. His topic will be "Health-Physics Instrumentation."

TB EXAMINATIONS URGED

Tuberculosis, especially in the early stages, often has no symptoms. Its discovery then depends on a thorough medical examination aided by X-Ray. Such examinations are particularly important among adolescents and young adults, and among workers exposed of dirt, dust and other special groups which have high tuberculosis death rates.

ACCIDENTS ARE MENACE

At present accidents are the greatest single menace to child life, particularly among boys. At ages five to 14 years the number of lives lost among boys in accidents is more than twice the combined total of the communicable diseases of childhood — tuberculosis, pneumonia, rheumatic fever, and appendicitis.

Y-12 Varsity Softball Team Plays First Game Tonight In New Loop

Manager Roy Robert's Y-12 varsity softballers will swing into action at 6:15 o'clock tonight at Oakwood Park No. 2 when they clash with the Oak Ridge Schools in the second game of the City Recreation Softball "B" League's schedule. Initial game was played last night when the Fairchild nine met the Firestone boys.

Robert's Y-12ers will play again Thursday night, same starting time, same place, when they meet the same team they met tonight. All games in the "B" softball league are booked for Oakwood Park No. 2 and all will start at 6:30 p.m.

An excellent array of softball players will represent Y-12 among the following fast-pitch athletes: McLendon, Campbell and Stanton, first base; McGill, J. Sewell, second base; Wright, shortstop; Krouse, third base; Burney, McPherson, Barker, Keen and Dew, outfielders; Webb and Stanton, pitchers; and Moore, catcher.

The six teams which compose the City Recreation "B" Softball League are, besides Y-12, Fairchild, Firestone, Oak Ridge Schools, Roane-Anderson and Dukes Esso. The season will be divided into first and second halves and a play-off series for the 1948 championship.

Saylor 'Loses' Ball; Discovers Eagle Is Scored

Credit for shooting the first eagle (golfing variety) in Oak Ridge goes to Harvey Saylor, Dept. B12C, who accomplished the rare feat while hunting in the vicinity of Green No. 5 at the Oak Ridge Golf and Country Club on Thursday evening, May 13. The thing Saylor and three golfing pals were hunting for on that particular day was a small pellet which he, on the second shot, had driven out of sight over the hill and in the general direction of the green.

Aided by foursome mates, George Mitchell, Jesse M. Herndon and N. H. MacKay, Saylor spent five minutes looking for the ball before one of them suggested looking in the cup before giving up. There they found the ball; and Saylor became the club's first golfer to shoot an eagle at the Oak Ridge course. Par for No. 5 hole is four and the yardage is 273.

GIRLS STATE PLANNED

Volunteer Girls' State, a citizenship training program for girls, will be conducted starting June 4 and ending June 11, it has been announced by the American Legion Auxiliary, sponsoring organization. The school will be held at Bethany Hills, an estate located 28 miles west of Nashville. Selection of Oak Ridge girls to attend will be based on character and scholarship attainment.

Women's Tennis Team Of Y-12 Opens Season With Triumph

Capt. Virginia Spivey's lively Y-12 racquetearing lasses got off to a good start in the Women's City Tennis League inaugural when they met their Carbide K-25 cousins from out West Turnpike way last Wednesday night at the Ridge courts and took four points out of six.

The situation loomed discouraging for the Y-12ers after the first two singles matches when Joan Gilliam lost to Eugenia Gurney by scores of 6-3, 2-6, and 6-4, and her Y-12 teammate, Elizabeth Patrick, lost to Velma Russell, 1-6, 6-3, and 7-5. But the other Y-12 players swept their matches, with Virginia Spivey winning over Ann Gwaltney by scores of 6-2 and 6-1; Mae Hale and Helen Burkhalter defeating Juanita McReynolds and Marion Jolley by scores of 6-4 and 8-6; and Ann Hart and Lovell Thompson banishing Mary Wright and Mary Boyd by scores of 6-0 and 6-2.

The Y-12ers meet the Independents at 5:30 o'clock tomorrow night at the Ridge courts in the second round. Captain Spivey reports the need of several more players as they are necessary to serve as substitutes when the regular players find it impossible to play on any particular night. Virginia Spivey's Y-12 phone number is 7313 and she asks that any Y-12 girl who wishes to play tennis to get in touch with her.

Move Launched To Have State Widen Highway To Clinton

Representatives of the Oak Ridge Lions Club, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Kiwanis Club are working with the Clinton Chamber of Commerce on plans to have the Tennessee state road department widen and straighten the road between Oak Ridge and Clinton.

A committee with representatives from the Clinton civic body and the three Oak Ridge clubs will be named shortly to work on the highway project and request State Highway Commissioner C. W. Phillips and Gov. Jim McCord to expedite improvement of the stretch of State Highway No. 61.

Cards, Wildecats To Clash Sunday At Oakwood Park

The Y-12 Cardinals opened the season last Saturday under the lights at Oakwood Park when Manager Arnold Tiller's nine played the Veterans of Foreign Wars team in a game which had been set up from Sunday night because of a revamping of the Municipal Baseball League schedule.

Legion Team Withdrawn

Rearrangement of games became necessary when it was learned that the Atomic Post, No. 199, of the American Legion, had withdrawn from the league because the team recently suffered the loss of several key players. Commander Miller McDonald of the local post explained that insufficient time remained for the Legion to field another team.

Second game on the Y-12 Cardinal slate had been booked for 8 p.m., Sunday, May 30, at Oakwood Park when the Y-12ers meet the highly touted Roane-Anderson Wildcats.

New Park Opens May 31

First game at the new ball park has been set for 8 p.m., Monday, May 31, with the Carbide K-25ers playing the Roane-Anderson Wildcats. It is expected that an opening night program will be arranged to inaugurate the new plant located off the Gamble Valley Road where construction has been pushed in order to provide additional playing facilities for the Municipal Baseball League by June 1.

Wallis' Racquet Wielders Wallop Roane-Andersonites

Indications that the Y-12 men's varsity tennis team would live up to Capt. Mal Wallis' predictions that the squad would be top contenders in the Men's City Tennis League became well-founded when the Y-12ers met and defeated the Roane-Andersonites last Wednesday on the Jefferson courts.

Captain Wallis started off by taking Levitt for two straight sets by scores of 6-2 and 6-2. Fred Hurst won his match by default; and then Larry Koontz, also of Y-12, turned back Whitaker of the R-A's by scores of 6-3 and 7-5 after losing the first set 5-7. Byrd, Y-12, had to battle to win his singles match with Zumwalt but came through with a 7-5 in the final set after dropping the second 4-6 and winning the first 8-6.

The Y-12 doubles team of Scofield and Harrison lost a 6-0 and 6-2 match to Frederking and White, but teammates, Tunnell and Radin won their doubles match by default. Victory over Roane-Anderson brought Y-12's winning points to 12 while six have been on the debit side.

The Y-12ers meet two opponents this week, taking on the K-25 team at 5:30 o'clock tonight at the Jefferson courts and the Atomic Energy Commission aggregation Thursday night, same time, same place.

Shugart Cops Medal Honors In Y-12 Meet

John R. Shugart, operator in Dept. B12H, captured medal play honors in the Y-12 open golf tournament when he toured the 18 holes in 82 Saturday, May 15, at the Oak Ridge Golf course during a qualifying round. Bill Reynolds registered an 89 for runner-

J. R. Shugart up position and both L. H. Barker and Clyde Bowles carded 90s for third place among the 27 Y-12 golfers who qualified for tournament play last week.

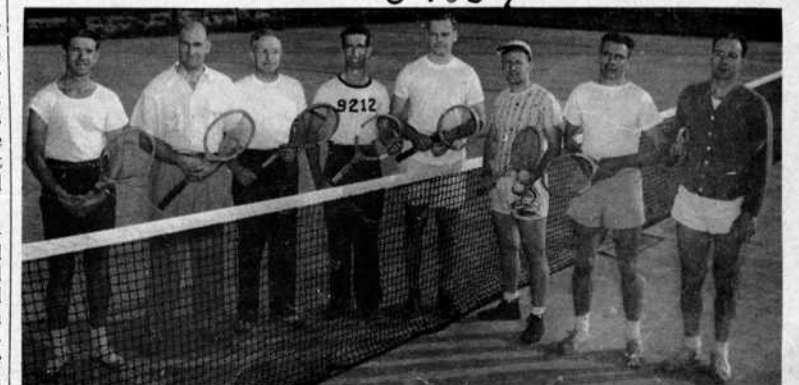

Tournament play ended last Sunday when the finals were staged in the five flights and also the finals in the consolation flights in which each golfer used but two clubs. Mrs. Joyce Barker was the only woman qualifier and she was given a handicap of 27 and matched in the fourth flight against Jack Case.

Other qualifying scores were Larry Koontz 91, Ed Cain 93, Doug Laves 93, W. J. Wanamaker 94, T. R. Morrow, George Mitchell and Harold Duncan 96's, Harold Ratjen and Nelson Tibbatts 98s, Dr. C. E. Larson 99, R. G. Orrison 101, K. M. Adkins 102, Leo Caldwell 103, L. C. Martin and J. J. Holtzkecht 105s, H. W. Saylor 106, Joe Dunlap 107, Charlie Keese 110, C. G. Hubbard 113, Jack Case 114, Bill Scott 122, Joyce Barker 128 and Bill Hays 129.

Flight pairings were arranged as follows: championship class, Shugart, Reynolds, Bowles and Barker; first flight, Koontz, Cain, Laves and Wanamaker; second flight, Duncan, Morrow, Mitchell, Ratjen, Tibbatts, Larson, Orrison, and Adkins; third flight, Caldwell, Martin, Holtzkecht, Saylor, Dunlap and Keese; and fourth flight, Hubbard, Case, Scott, Joyce Barker and Hays.

A TEAM OF Y-12 VARSITY RACQUETEERS WHICH Capt. Mal Wallis says may not win the Oak Ridge Men's City Tennis League title but which will be up there contending for the lead. The aggregation, newly formed this season, already shows plenty of class. Left to right are Fred Hurst, Larry Koons, "Buck" Buckminister, John Byrd, Ed Scofield, Charlie Harrison, Capt. Mal Wallis, and Russ Baldock.

Front Runners Will Get Tests In Plant Tilts

Tonight's tripleheader at the Administration Field will test several front-running teams in the Plant Softball League, particularly the Fire Department's clash with the strong Calutrons at 7 o'clock. The All-Stars take on the Bldg. 9212 boys at 5:30 o'clock and the Bums meet the Isotopes at 8:30 o'clock. Two games are scheduled for the Jefferson Field tomorrow night when the Wolves meet the Dreamers at 6 o'clock and the Calutrons play the Bums at the same time on the other Jeff diamond.

Another tripleheader will be played Thursday night at the Administration Field when the Wolves take on the All-Stars at 5:30 o'clock; the Isotopes meet the Dreamers at 6 o'clock; and the Guards contest the Bldg. 9212 boys at 8:30 o'clock.

Holiday Games Cancelled

The two games which had been originally scheduled for Monday, May 31, have been cancelled because of the holiday and will be set up for a later date which will be announced in the next edition of the Y-12 Bulletin.

Reconsideration of the game which the Bird Cagers lost to the Wolves by a forfeit resulted in the managers of the Plant League teams voting for a replay of the contest at a meeting held last week at the Recreation Department Office. The game will be replayed at 6:30 p.m., June 22, at the Administration Field.

Hitters Going Strong

Lusty stick work featured most of last week's games in the Plant Softball League as batters slaughtered all sorts of pitching and scores ran skyward. One close ball game, however, was the Fire Department's 7 to 4 win over the Bldg. 9212 boys, which might have been a lot tighter fracas if the Bldg. 9212ers had not committed a trio of errors.

The Maintenance crew showed plenty of class in defeating the One-91s Monday night, May 17, at Administration Field by a score of 19 to 4. Each team made seven hits but the Maintenance team played almost flawless ball as the one error against them showed compared to the 11 marked up for their opponents. A barrage of 25 hits produced 22 runs for the Guards to six runs for the Bums last Tuesday night. Jack Holt, Guard hurler, walked, singled, tripled and homered twice while his battery mate, E. M. Honeycutt, singled three times and doubled once for a perfect day at bat. In the second game on the May 18 slate, the Wolves won over the Isotopes by a score of 13 to 2. Russell Allstun led the Wolves batting with two singles and two doubles while John Gordon was the loser's batting star with two singles, a double and a triple.

Again the Prime Minister pointed out the need for proceeding cautiously. "Be certain that this man's motives are above suspicion and that his documents are genuine."

The first thing Commissioner Wood sought to establish was the reason for Gouzenko's decision to leave the Soviet Embassy.

"I will be glad to explain that to you," was the reply. His statement is reproduced here because of the lesson which it contains for every thinking person.

"I, Igor Gouzenko, wish to make the following statement of my own will.

"Having arrived in Canada two years ago, I was surprised during the first days by the complete freedom of the individual which exists in Canada but does not exist in Russia. The false representations about the democratic countries which are increasingly propagated in Russia were dissipated daily, as no lying propaganda can stand up against facts.

"Holding forth at international conferences with valuable statements about peace and security, the Soviet Government is simultaneously preparing secretly for a third world war. To meet this war, the Soviet Government is creating in democratic countries, including Canada, a fifth column, in the organization of which even diplomatic representatives of the Soviet Government take part.

"During my residence in Canada I have seen how the Canadian people and their government, sincerely wishing to help the Soviet people, sent supplies to the Soviet Union, collected money for the welfare of the Russian people, sacrificing the lives of their sons in the delivery of these supplies across the ocean and instead of gratitude for the help rendered, the Soviet Government is developing espionage activity in Canada, preparing to deliver a stab in the back of Canada—all this without the knowledge of the Russian people.

"Convinced that such double-faced politics of the Soviet Government toward the democratic countries do not conform with the interests of the Russian people and endanger the security of civilization, I decided to break away from the Soviet regime and to announce my decision openly."

The next problem was to examine the documents, translate them, and establish their authenticity. A mass of papers, they were of all colors, shapes and sizes, and one glance at their varied nature told the officials that the task of sorting and checking was not going to be easy.

Story Without Parallel

It was decided to set up a special headquarters for the operation in the Rockliffe Barracks of the RCMP. Here the anti-espionage squad, headed by Inspector John Leopold, began to uncover a story of intrigue, conspiracy and treason without parallel in the history of espionage in North America.

Meantime, the Soviet Embassy was not idle. To the Dominion Government, it addressed a note which was received on September 8. It read, in part:

"A colleague of the Embassy, Igor Sergeievitch Gouzenko, failed to report for work on September 6. It was later established that I. Gouzenko robbed some money belonging to the Embassy and had hidden himself together with his family.

"The Embassy of the U. S. S. R. asks the Department of External Affairs to take urgent measures to seek and arrest I. Gouzenko and to hand him over for deportation."

The Canadian Government requested particulars concerning the stolen funds. The Embassy made no answer. Instead, on September 14, it sent a second note, pitched at a higher degree of urgency. This message read, in part:

"The Embassy, upon instructions from the Government of the U. S. S. R., repeats its request to the Government of Canada to apprehend Gouzenko and his wife and without trial to hand them over to the Embassy for deportation to the Soviet Union."

Rigid Tests Are Passed

By that time the Government of Canada had no intention of handing Gouzenko over to anyone. Subjected to the most rigid and searching tests to determine his sincerity and the authenticity of the documents, he had come through with flying colors.

The documents were no forgeries. Dozens of them were handwritten in Russian. Gouzenko said that they were the writings of Colonel Zabolotin, Colonel Rogov and Colonel Motinov. Investigators checked at different houses where these officers had been entertained. At one, a hunting lodge, a guest book was obtained. In it were the signatures of many government and diplomatic officials who had been guests there—including these three men. A handwriting expert was able to state flatly that Gouzenko had brought genuine writings of the Soviet officials.

There were other tests as well. Gouzenko brought four copies of secret telegrams sent from London to Ottawa. They were dated but a few weeks before—August 24, 25 and 31. A quick check on the official government files revealed that they were exact copies of highly secret matters supposed to be known only to the British and Canadian governments.

Document Titles Ominous

The problem no longer was one of establishing the veracity of Gouzenko, but of rooting the cancerous intrusion of Soviet secret agents from the innermost channels of the Canadian Government. As quickly as a document was translated, it was filed according to category. The titles themselves were ominous—Atomic Weapons—Radar—Secret Explosives—False Passports—to mention but a few.

Never before in the history of espionage had such a carefully documented plot been presented to the victim in one package. There was almost too much evidence. The list of cover names along for secret agents of Russian, Canadian, British and United States citizenship ran to three printed pages.

Next week's chapter of "The Soviet Spies" is MUST reading for everyone. It reveals how one of the ringleaders of the espionage net discovered one of the most closely guarded secrets in Oak Ridge—the output of Uranium 235 in Y-12. So crucial was the situation that the prime ministers of Canada and Great Britain conferred with President Truman on the emergency. All of this is told in the next installment of "The Soviet Spies."

Women's Softball Team Meets Lab Lassies On Friday Night

Y-12's game with the Roane-Anderson lassies played last night at the Midtown diamonds launched the 1948 schedule of the Women's City Softball League. Composing the women's league are the Roane-Anderson team, Carbide K-25, Oak Ridge National Laboratory, and the Y-12 outfit. The season has been divided into two halves and a playoff series will be arranged as the final wind-up if two different teams win each half.

GROUP INSURANCE POPULAR

More than 50,000 employers in the United States and Canada today are providing various forms of group insurance for their employees. The volume of group life insurance alone now exceeds $29,000,000,000, or an average of nearly $2,000 for each group-insured worker.

Y-12 Fishermen Report Good Luck And Have Evidence To Prove It

Along about this time of the year newspaper offices from coast to coast, particularly in those regions where the fishing is good, are swamped with reports of the big ones that were landed and even more about the big ones that got away. In some instances the authors of these yarns come forth with photographic evidence of their feats.

HERE IS H. M. BURNETT, Dept. H12L, and the fine rainbow trout he landed from the Tellico River.

Just such incidents marked the routine around the office of The Y-12 Bulletin last week when two Y-12 employees dropped by to proudly report on their prowess in piscatorial circles. Although more or less cagy about most fish stories—the evidence presented by H. M. Burnett, Dept. H12L; and Capt. Ray Ledford, of the Y-12 Guard Department was weighed by the staff of The Y-12 Bulletin and found ample. So here is a recording of the events as told by them. Believed Biggest Of Year

Burnett landed what may be the champion rainbow trout of the year on the first day of fishing in the Tellico River in the Tellico Plains Park. The speckled beauty was 17 5/8 inches long and weighed a pound and a quarter, being one-eighth of an inch longer than the next largest rainbow trout hooked in the Tellico waters, according to Percy Swanson, a sportsman in the Tellico area who has been keeping track of fishing records for many years. It was the cream of the catch of 19 made by Burnett and his party during the day.

Burnett has entered the trout in the fishing rodeo of the Oak Ridge Sportsman's Club and also in a contest conducted by Field and Stream magazine. After listing his catch for posterity it finally ended up in the frying pan at the Burnett residence, 115 Vessey Lane.

Ledford's Lines Lash Okeechobee
Captain Ledford's activities were reported following his recent return from a Florida vacation trip. Operating out of Miami, Ledford's lines whipped the waters of Lake Okeechobee, a fisherman's paradise, on numerous occasions and on the first day out he caught the limit in large and small mouth bass. On every visit to the lake, Ledford reported, the results were the same and the party came back with fine strings of the fresh water fish.

Calutrons won out over the Dreamers by a score of 16 to 5 because they were charged with but four errors to their opponent's 13. Jim Barker homered and singled for the Calutrons while "Fats" Dawson singled three times for the Dreamers.

The Wednesday night game at the Jefferson Field, won by the Fire Department 7 to 4 over the Bldg. 9212 boys, was highlighted by Pitcher John Webb holding the Bldg. 9212ers to four hits and his two doubles which figured largely in the Fire Fighter's victory. However, the winners trailed Bldg. 9212 by a score of three to four until the last of the seventh when a rally of four runs put the game on ice for the Fire Fighters. Guttery led the hitting for Bldg. 9212 with a double and a triple. Only three errors occurred in this game. All were charged against the 9212ers.

Bird Cagers Are Upset

In the first game of last Thursday Administration Field the All-Stars won a hard-fought battle from the One-91s by a score of 13 to 6 when the Stars ran in five runs in the fourth inning on five hits and one walk. The second game saw a favored team upset when the Isotopes took the Bird Cagers by a score of 13 to 2 on superb twirling by Killian and Burnett who held the Cagers to seven hits. The finale was a run-away by the Bldg. 9212 boys who blasted Maintenance pitching for 19 hits, including homers by Evans, Guttery and Benny, for 20 runs to the opposition's five.

DON'T NEGLECT COLDS

Never neglect a cold! That's one way to help avoid pneumonia. But if pneumonia should strike, don't let it frighten you. Medical science, aided by the sulfas and penicillin, had reduced pneumonia mortality by about one half in the past 10 years.

Monday, May 31, Set As Holiday In Y-12

as failure of these parts often can prove disastrous.

Swimmers and boaters also are warned against the hazards of carelessness while participating in those pastimes. Inexperienced or weak swimmers are urged to remain close to the bank or edge of rivers, lakes or pools and not to enter the water for at least one hour after eating to avoid the peril of cramps. Overloading of boats, changing seats or moving around in them while they are away from docks or other mooring places is particularly dangerous.

The 1948 calendar also has July 4 falling on Sunday and the regular recognized Independence Day holiday will be observed on Monday, July 5. Other holidays recognized by the Company are Labor Day, falling on Monday, September 5; Thanksgiving Day falling on Thursday, November 25; Christmas Day, falling on Saturday, December 25; and New Year's Day, one week later.

PLAYHOUSE SET CAST

Casting for "Personal Appearance," the Community Playhouse's next production has been completed, according to Director Bob Teddor, and rehearsals got underway last week. The play, written by Lawrence Riley, will show at the high school auditorium beginning June 9.
